

 Symantec United States

 global sites

 products

 purchase

 service and support

 security updates

 downloads

 about symantec

 search

 feedback

 security updates

W32.Mineup.Worm

Discovered on: July 5, 2001

Last Updated on: July 6, 2001 at 06:44:35 PM PDT

 Printer-friendly version

W32.Mineup.Worm is a worm that is spread by disguising itself update to the popular Windows game Minesweeper. The worm consists of two components, one executable component and or VBS component. The VBS component sends the executable file everyone in your Microsoft Outlook Address Book. The worm al contains a small payload routine that executes on the 15th of ev month.

NOTE: Definitions dated prior to July 5, 2001, detect the VBS component as Bloodhound.VBS.Worm.

Category: Worm

Infection Length: 6686 Bytes

Virus Definitions: July 5, 2001

Threat Assessment:

©1995-2001 Symantec Corporation.
All rights reserved.

Legal Notices
Privacy Policy